

University of Antwerp

AY 2022-2023

University of Antwerp
Faculty of Business and Economics

Antwerp

Why Antwerp, Belgium?

1 ECONOMIC HEART OF BELGIUM

Thanks to the presence of the port (2nd largest of Europe), innovative chemical industry and global diamond trade, Antwerp is an economic hub for businesses and entrepreneurs.

2 A METROPOLITAN VILLAGE

Antwerp is a multicultural city where cultures blend very easily. Our citizens represent 173 different nationalities who contribute to the globalness of this city, with the identity of a village.

3 CITY OF CREATIVITY AND INNOVATION

Entrepreneurship and creativity have been part of our DNA and are still growing at a fast pace. With innovation hubs opening up around every corner and creative minds representing Antwerp at a global level.

4 RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF EUROPE

11,5 million citizens in Belgium

500 thousand citizens in Antwerp

3 official languages

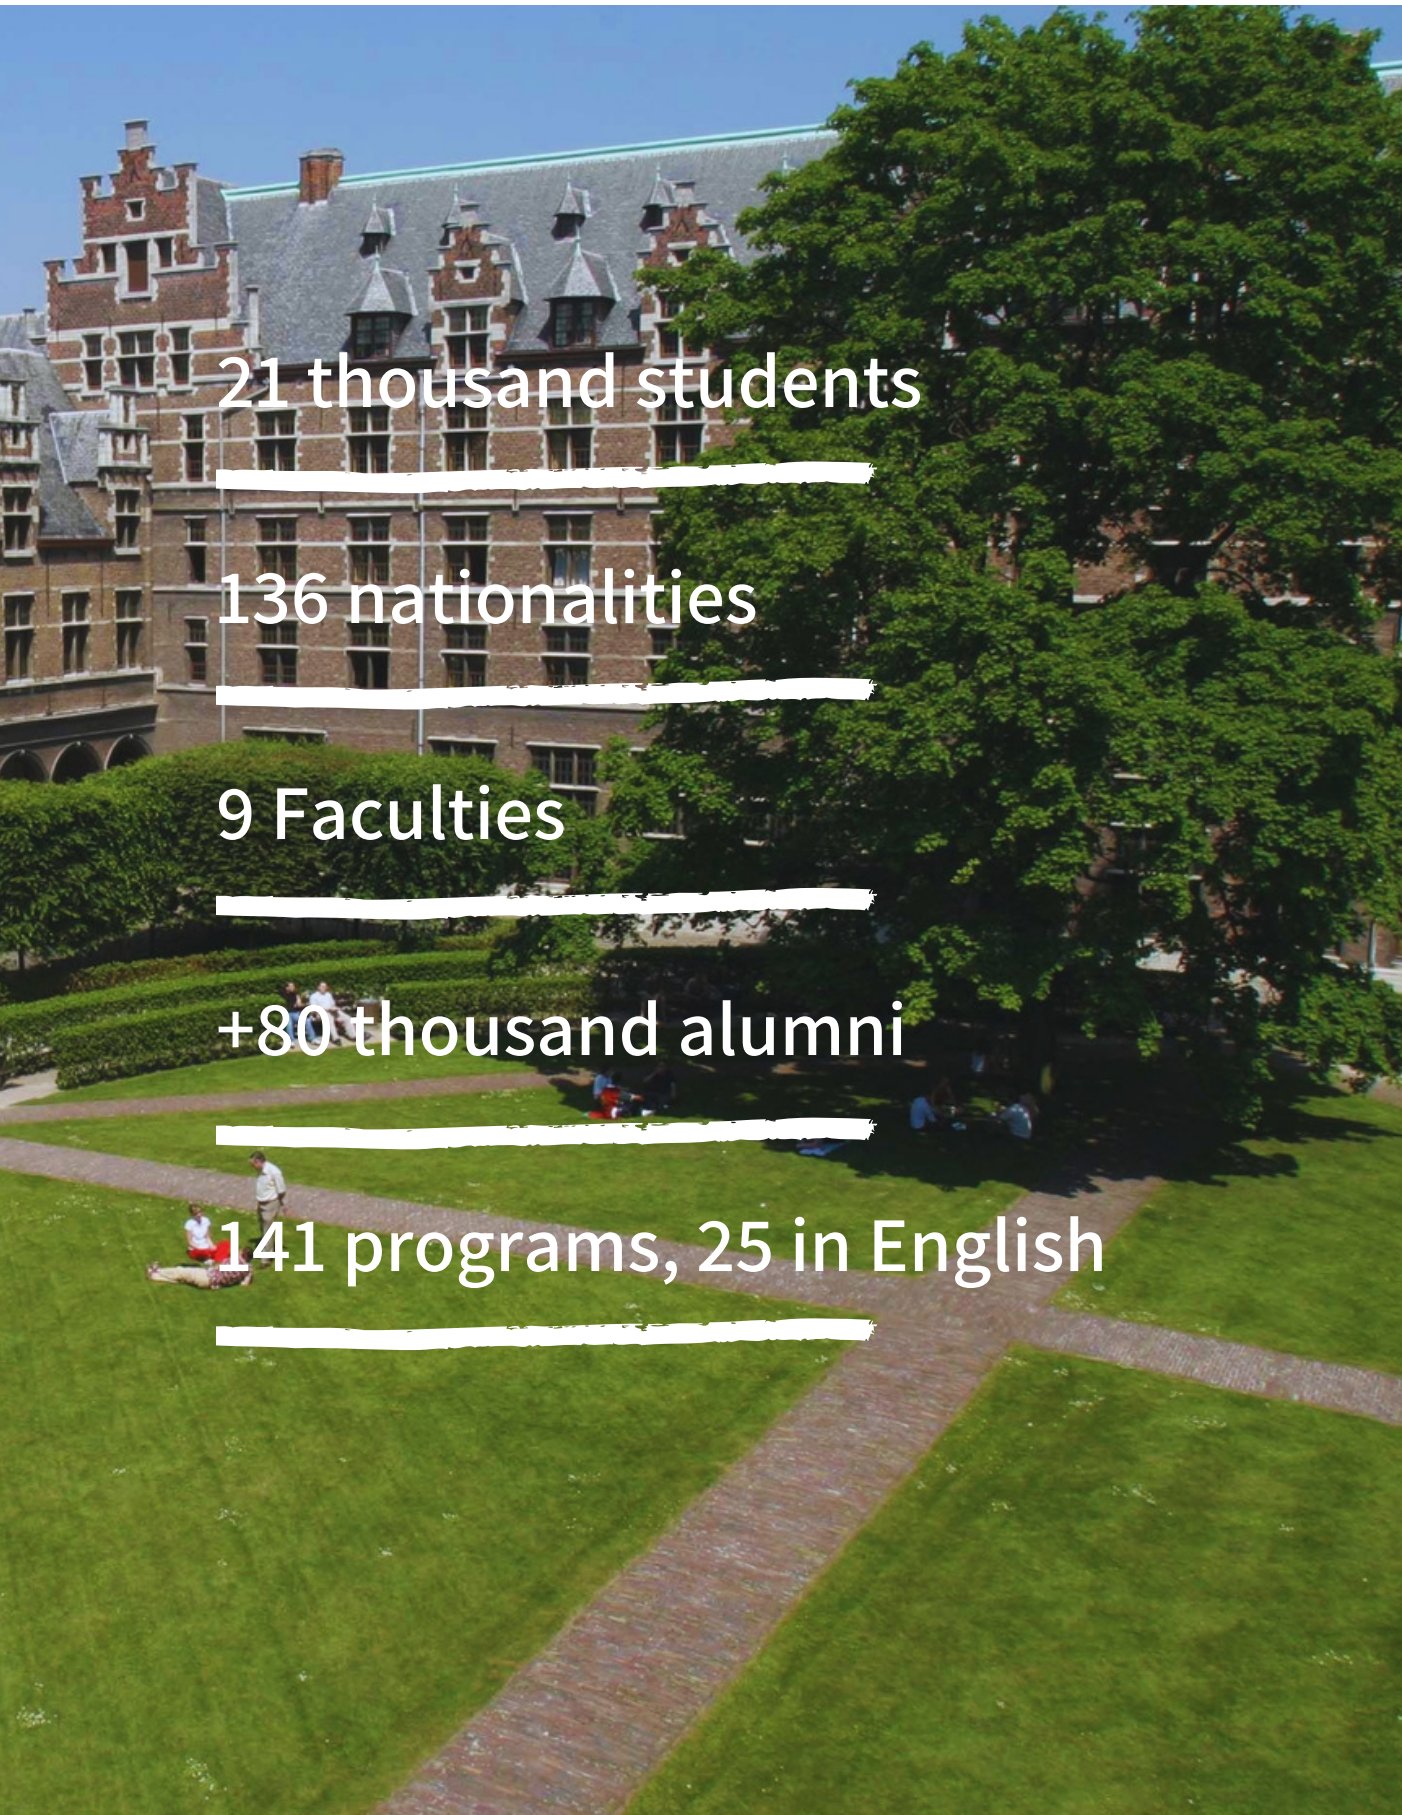

30 thousand square km of land

University of Antwerp

Why the University of Antwerp?

21 thousand students

136 nationalities

9 Faculties

+80 thousand alumni

141 programs, 25 in English

1

RESEARCH UNIVERSITY AT HEART

The University of Antwerp is a strong research University which is shown by the rankings that the University has obtained.

2

FACULTY OF INTERNATIONAL PRESTIGE

Besides the largest number of exchange students at the University, our faculty has also evolved to be the most international Faculty of Economics in Flanders.

3

SHAPING DIAMONDS INTO CRITICAL THINKERS

Students are motivated to think critically about the issues our world faces in these modern days such as innovation, sustainability, social dilemma's...

4

CLOSE COLLABORATION WITH PROFESSIONAL WORLD

Our Faculty works in close collaboration with AMS and the business world through f.e. guest lectureres and company visits.

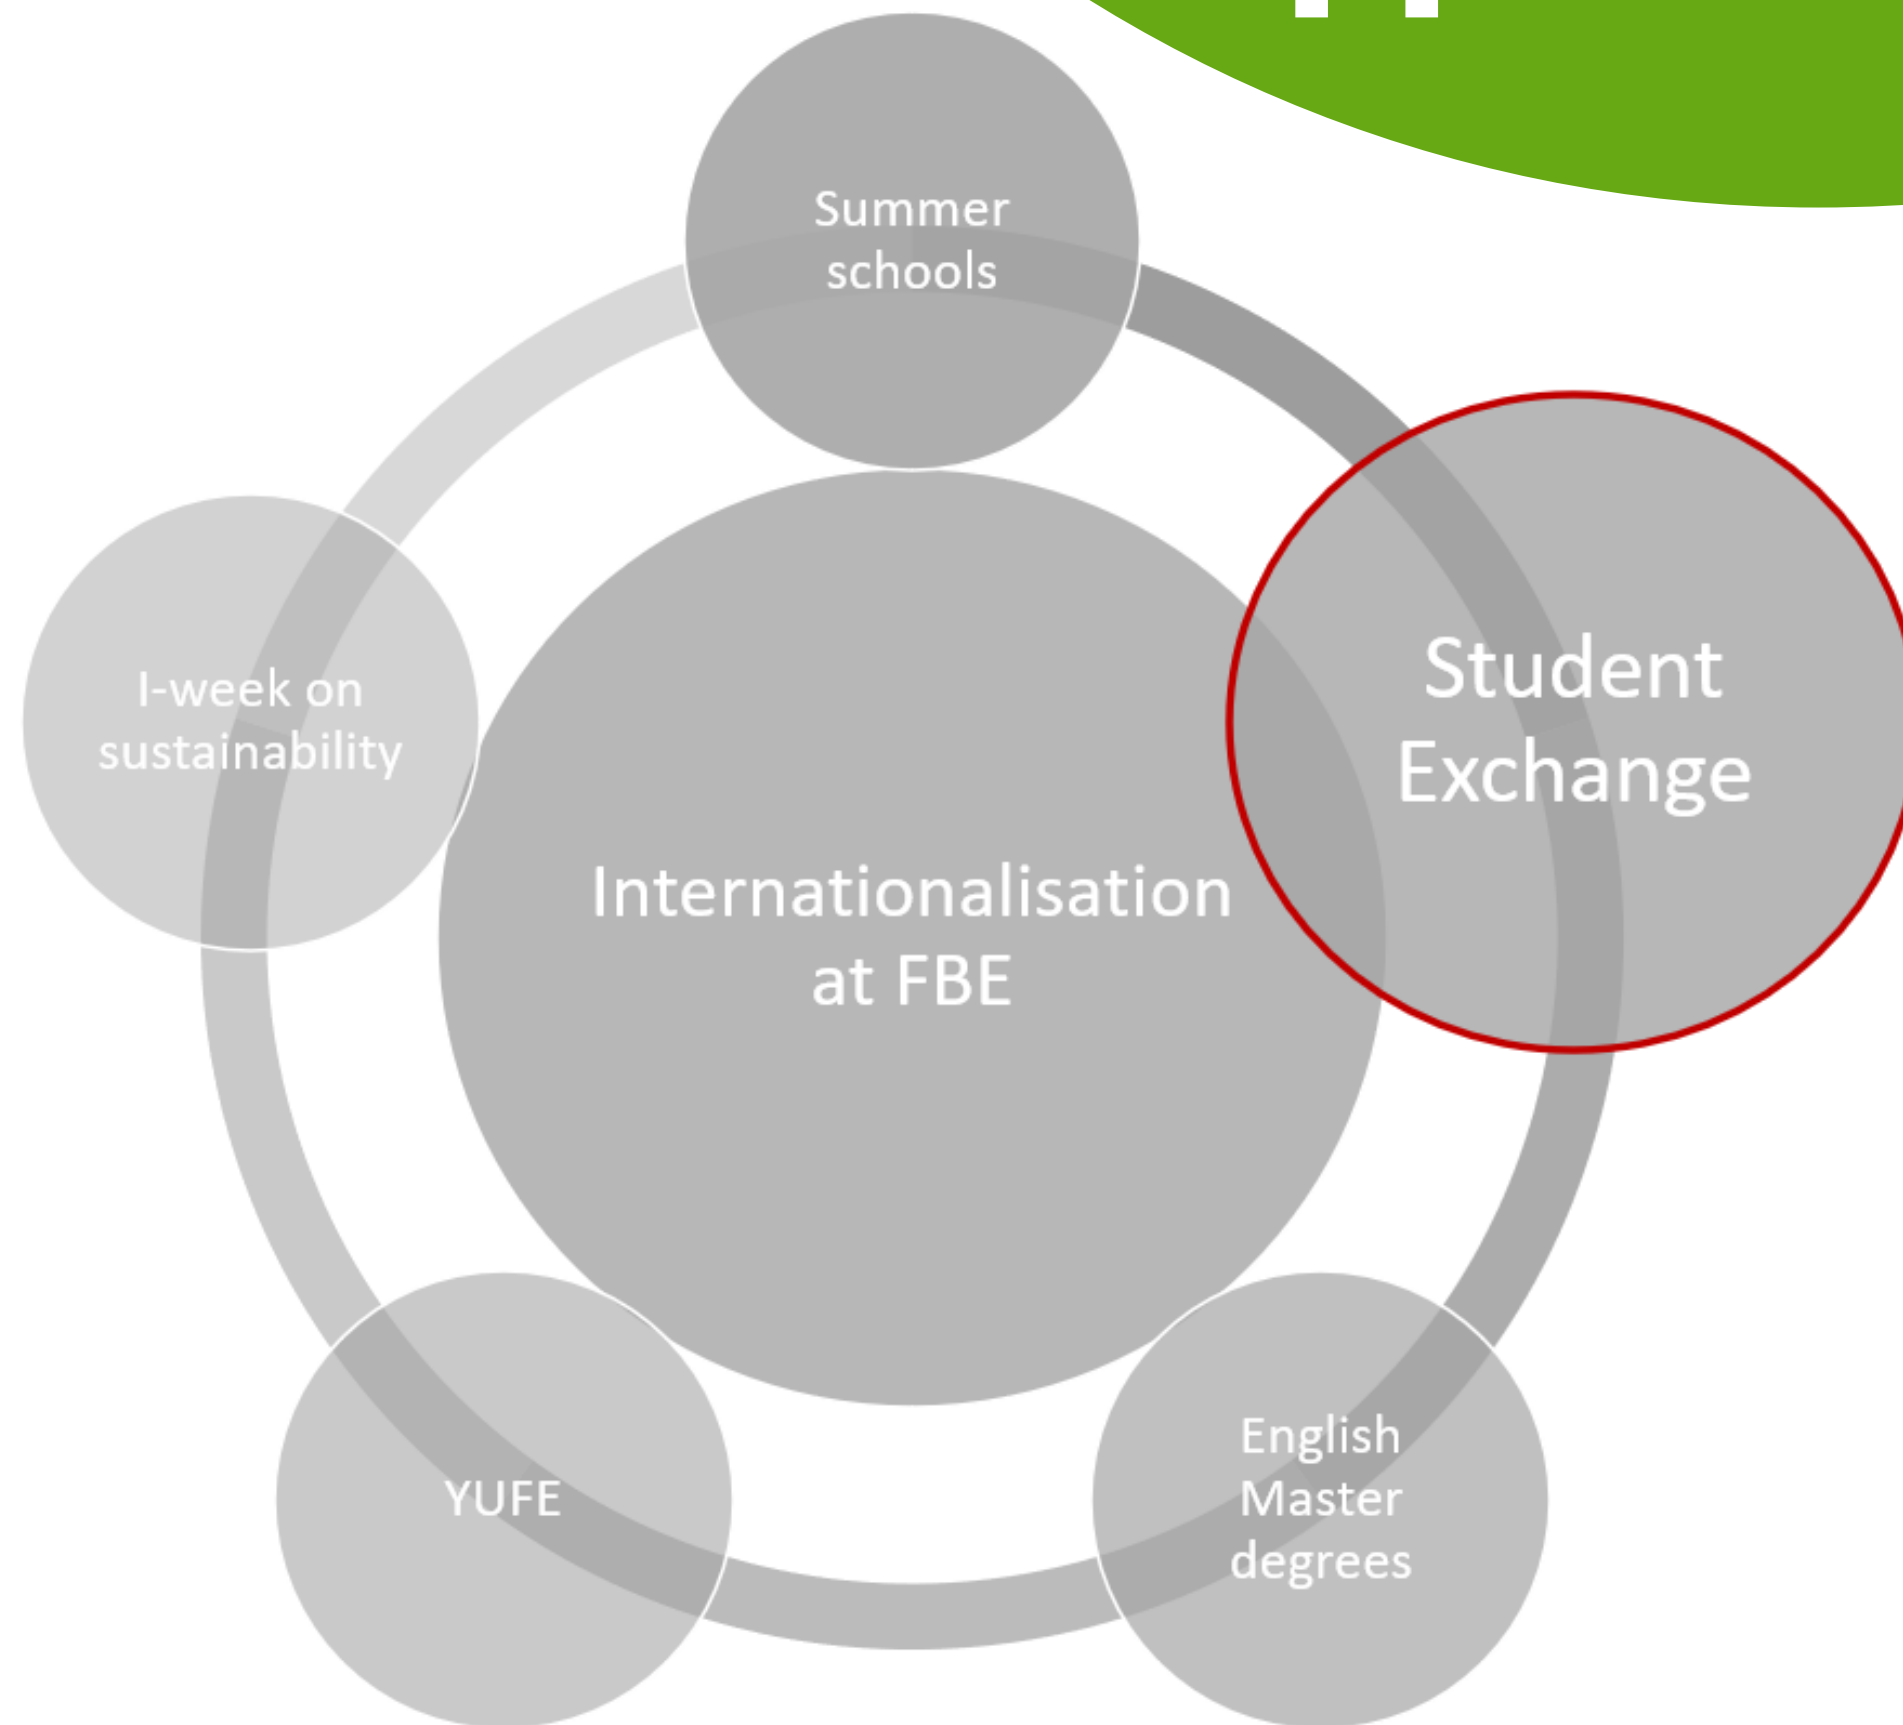

Faculty of Business and Economics

Mission

We shape new generations of competent graduates and academics developing into critical-thinking researchers, executives, entrepreneurs and policy makers, with an independent mind, ethical awareness and global mindset.

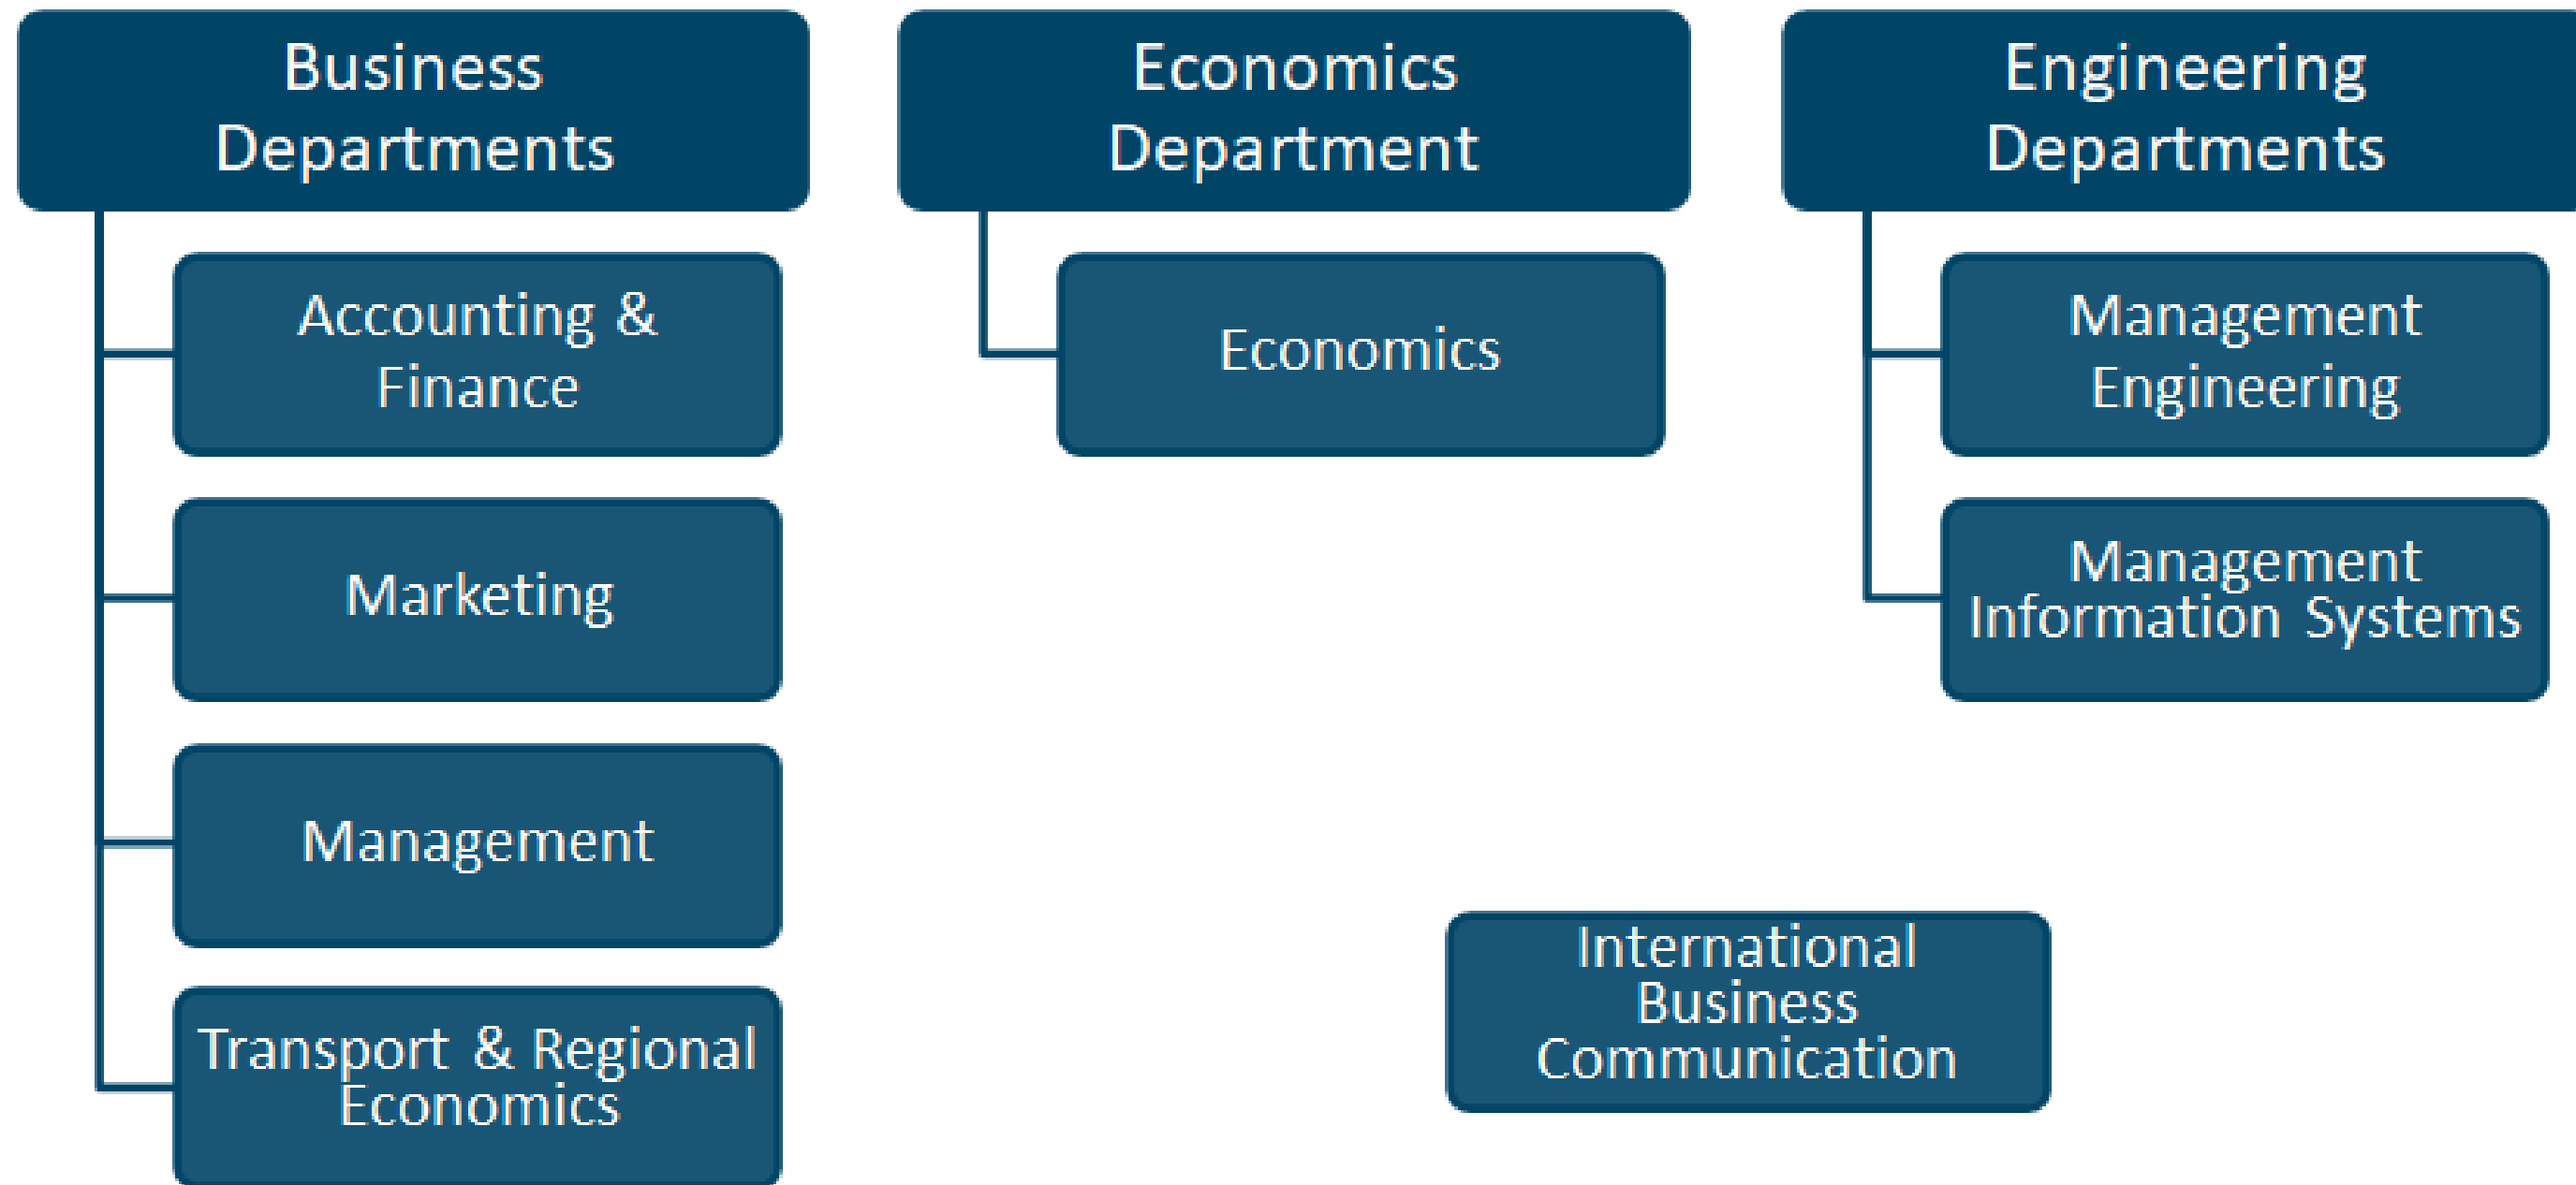

International opportunities

- We organize international student events throughout the semester, career development days, cultural trips... that students can take part in
- We offer courses from international professors
- Orientation days at the start of each semester
- Many student associations that organize parties, lectures, career days...

Faculty Structure

Faculty of Business and Economics

Practical information

- ◆ Fact sheet 2022-2023 will be sent to your coordinator
- ◆ You can take up to 2 courses at another Faculty
- ◆ Our international office will assist you with matters such as housing, visa, residence permits, insurance etc.
- ◆ First semester: End of September - End of January
Second semester: Mid February - End of June
Retake sessions: End of August - Beginning of September

Contact & information

Ms Hervée Claeys

International mobility Coordinator

exchange.fbe@uantwerp.be

City Campus

Prinsstraat 13, 2000 Antwerp

Belgium

Not convinced yet?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kXUHzpVO_Ug

See you in Antwerp!

Some facts and figures

- 40 student associations
- +80.000 alumni
- 171 research groups
- 3.650 publications per year
- Oldest business and economics faculty in Belgium
- 150 active distinguished exchange partner institutions (Faculty Business and Economics only)
- Strategic partnership with Antwerp Management School
- 94% of our alumni found a job in 6 months in 59 different countries

- AACSB, EFMD and EPAS accredited but also in the process of EQUIS
- Our Master Business Economics is ranked (90) in the Financial Times best Master in Management

- Times Higher Education 250 under 50: Rank 13
- QS 50 under 50 2021: Rank 20
- Times Higher Education Millennials: Rank 5

- Times Higher Education 2021: Rank 170
- QS World Ranking 2021: Rank 238
- Best Global Universities 2021: Rank 212